ment was given by Malone's orchestra.

William Ogden's Fast Sled.

Among the many sleds that have been out on Boswell avenue for the past several nights is one which has been attracting special attention because of its exceptional speed and size.
It was made and is owned by William A. Ogden, of the city of New York, and is the fastest sled that has ever been made. It is a double runner, only a plain sled, but it is so constructed that it can be pulled by one person, and its speed is not surpassed. Mr. Ogden is out with a challenge for any sled in Norwich to beat it.

Gift Edge Orchestra Entertained.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Miss Alma Banck, cashier at the Boston store, met with a bit of misfortune Wednesday evening, falling and dislocating her shoulder while on the way home from supper. The accident happened on the stairs at the theater corner just after she had turned from Broadway to go down Willow street. In her fall she struck on her left elbow, resulting in dislocating that shoulder. She was assisted to the residence of Dr. Linnell on Broadway, where the shoulder was set. The injury will not interfere with her attendance at a reception to be given this evening in honor of herself and her sister.

PHYSICAL TRAINING FOR CHILDREN

Will be Instituted in Bridge District School as an Experiment Next Week—Miss Young the Teacher.

The subject of physical training for their children was presented to the members of the Bridge district school afternoon at a meeting held after school in the senior room. Invitations to the meeting had been sent out by Miss Marion Young, a graduate of the New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics, and a teacher of the subject last year in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
A good number of those invited were present, as well as the teachers of the school.

Miss Young had a plan to propose to provide physical training for the children of the school, which was enthusiastically received and adopted by the parents. She opened up the subject by reading a paper upon physical training, in which she clearly showed the great emphasis that is now being laid upon the value to school children of proper school room exercises, drill and directed games for recreation. All having a marvelous influence upon the physical, mental and moral health of the child. Mental and moral health often depend upon physical health.
For ill health and a weak body affect nearly all things are possible, but with health nearly all things are impossible.

HISTORIAN AT WORK ON ARMY AND NAVY CLUB.

Gen. Edward Harland, was First President and an Active Member at Organization.

The Army and Navy club of Connecticut created the office of historian at the reunion in September, which was held at the Griswold, Eastern Point, a constitutional amendment to that effect being adopted. William H. Catlin of Meriden was appointed the position, and has since been collecting and recording in the most thorough manner all the facts and biographical data concerning each member of the club. Blanks have been sent out and are now in the hands of the members. The facts recorded will be of great value in completing and perpetuating the records of the organization.

The historian, Mr. Catlin, was in the Meriden company of the Fifteenth Connecticut at the battle of Gettysburg.
The origin of the Army and Navy club dates back to 1879, taking place while the legislature was in session.
The initial steps were taken during the session of 1879. The civil war veterans in the legislature of that year were Gen. Edward Harland of Norwich and Capt. John C. Kinney of Hartford. Walter S. Clark of Chester, William C. Doolittle of Southington, and Hubert E. Carpenter of Chatham.
The original members of the club were: Gen. Harland, Capt. Kinney, Walter S. Clark, William C. Doolittle, Hubert E. Carpenter, and John C. Kinney.

Gen. Harland was in the Third Connecticut under Gen. Edward Harland at the battle of Gettysburg. He was in the First Connecticut cavalry. He was wounded at Cedar Creek, Va., November 12, 1862. Gen. Harland represented the town of Norwich, the foremost soldier in the house.
He had risen steadily from a captaincy in the Third Connecticut to the rank of major general. He was the first department commander, G.
A. R., in Connecticut. His presence in the legislature was a great asset. His office was invariably regarded with pleasure and satisfaction.

The last meeting of the organization under the name of the Legislative Army and Navy club was held Thursday evening, March 26, Speaker Wright present. It was at this meeting that formal steps were taken by the club towards making the removal of the bullet flag of the club from the state arsenal to the capitol a great ceremonial. The following was adopted:

CASE OF DISOBEYING THE HEALTH OFFICER.

Postponed Until Feb. 12—Fowler City Sent Home from Hospital Contrary to Orders.

In the city court on Wednesday morning County Health Officer Arthur M. Brown presented the case against Frederick Symington, superintendent of the Backus hospital, in which the charge is disobeying the orders of the health officer of the city. It is claimed he sent home Irene Fowler of Hamden, the daughter of Henry Fowler, from the hospital before she had finished peeling after suffering from scarlet fever, and that this was done after the health officer had for-bidden it. She was one of a large family and it became necessary to isolate her and should have been kept to prevent the disease spreading.

The county health officer said he was ready to proceed with the case, but City Attorney Hall said that inasmuch as Mr. Symington is the one against whom the complaint is made he might be excused, and the case was postponed to the next session of the court, which is under authority at the hospital and acts under orders and he did not see how he is to blame in the matter.
It was finally decided to postpone the matter until Friday, Feb. 12, and the court thought the matter might be adjusted in the meantime.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Holds Largely Attended Social on Wednesday Evening.

On Wednesday evening there was a large attendance at the social held by the Epworth league in the vestry of the Methodist church. The program of entertainment for the evening was ably furnished by Rev. and Mrs. Edward Huntington Smith of China. The vestry was attractively decorated with Chinese lanterns, scrolls, flags and parisols. Rev. and Mrs. Smith were the guests of honor. The program consisted of a large number of songs of high degree. There were many tables of Chinese puzzles, native games, and other amusements. The evening was a great success. The Epworth league is a great institution. They grow straight up and when one is cut down another one grows up. As the Chinese say, a man
